his tory - all by my self.
He will get our last reports next Monday.

Pathe went in town today to get some letter paper.
It is still raining here,
is it very warm in Jacksonville. I am so sorry that you will have to travel in the day
it is so warm, I do wish you could do all of your

My own darling Papa,
It certainly is funny that you have not gotten our letters, for
we have written every day except one.
We had an examination

traveling in the night.

Another storm is just coming up and I am afraid it is going to be a right bad one.

Jean is not feeling very well, she certainly does look bad.

Auntie is trying to get her to take a tonic but she won't take it.

Don't forget to take your S.S.S. for you don't eat any thing.

Mr. Matthew came over to see the girls last night, he is from S. C. - and of course Uncle Lou likes him.

I have got to go and get my history as I am to have it by myself to morrow.

With a heart full of love and kisses.

Your devoted baby.

Grace.
