

and some school tickets, and will have to wait until you come to get them.

Auntie has been expecting Jimmie all of the week but she got a letter yesterday saying that he would have to go on another trip.

Pattie, Mr. Pratt, Jean, Lousin Tilden and I went on a long walk yesterday afternoon, down to the spring which is about
two miles.

Richmond, Virginia.

Sept. 18, 1904.

My own dear papa,

I am so sorry that Mr. Ball is so sick, and we have miss you so much
all day for we were looking for you certainly to-day.

School begins to-morrow
and you must make hast and come home for
I have got to get three books

I took tea at Mrs. Duyk's Wednesday evening and spent the night with Ethel, I had a very nice time at both places.

Margarette Willis a friend of mine who lives in Newark N.J. is coming down to see Ethel and she might spend the whole winter I certainly am glad for she is such a nice girl.

Auntie, Cousin Selden and Jean are all going over to the Seminary to church to night.

Come just as soon as you can for I will have to have my books right away and I want to see you so bad for it is two weeks but it feels like two months since you were here.

With lots of love and hugs and kisses.

Your loving baby.
Grace.
