My dearest Papa,

Just a few lines to night. The little girls have been writing to you ever since supper. They are so crazy to see you. Mr. Pinchhart came to see us last Sat. and when we got to the station to meet him Ellen said "Goody! my Grand daddy is coming". And feeling quite relieved today. I was asked to speak to the ladies of our church also the ladies of the First Pres. church all in our S. S. room yesterday. You never saw such a crowd every seat taken & Charlie said autos were lined up the full length of the block all to hear me, now would you believe it. I asked the Lord to use me and I believe He did, I was not the least scared talked about 20 min.

He had five business men from Atlanta here last Sun to organize a Billie Sunday Club among the business men. He gets awfully discouraged in dealing with the First Church minister, he is such a snob, makes me so mad I can hardly stand it.

Please let us hear from you some times. A heart full of love from all of us.

Your devoted daughter,
Pattie
