

The Possible Welsh Ancestry of Captain William Peirce of Jamestown and Mulberry Island, Virginia

by Jim White

The genealogy and history of Captain William Peirce is given in several sources, including Adventurers of Purse and Person,<sup>1</sup> Encyclopedia Virginia,<sup>2</sup> The Two Captains William Peirce,<sup>3</sup> Virginia Immigrants and Adventurers,<sup>4</sup> and A History of Mulberry Island, Warwick County, 1610-1784.<sup>5</sup> However, none of these sources attempt to locate his origins, except for one that mentions he was probably born around 1580 in England. This research shows that he may have been William Peirce, son of Humfrey Peirce of Welshpool in Montgomeryshire, weaver, who was apprenticed in the London Cutlers' Company in 1599.<sup>6</sup>

The clue that lead to this conclusion is based on an apparent relation of William to Thomas Peirce who died in the Indian Massacre of 1622.<sup>7</sup> Their names appeared together on a regrant of land in Warwick County in 1668 as the original grantees along with John Rolfe and William Spenser.<sup>8</sup> Thomas Peirce's possible daughter Elizabeth married Anthony Barham of Mulberry Island and the will of Anthony Barham, dated 6 Sept. 1641, gave to "Mrs Joane Perce, wife of Mr William Perce, fifty shillings to make her a ring."<sup>9</sup> Finally, an inventory of the estate of Thomas Peirce was entered in the General Court Minutes 19 April 1625. The appraisers were Richard Buck minister and

Search of Findmypast found only the 1599 apprentice record, so he does not seem to have lived in London as a master with apprentices. The Cutlers Company freedom admissions do not start until 1613, six years after he probably would have been entered in the record and were not searched. The Cutlers' Company Court Minutes were searched from 1602 to 1609 but found no mention of William Peirce. A John Addams of Trowbridge, Wiltshire, was apprenticed to a William Perry of the Cutlers Company in 1616. However, William Perry can be identified as William Perry of Trowbridge, Wiltshire, who was apprenticed in 1607 in the Cutlers Company (London Apprenticeship Abstracts, 1442-1850, findmypast.com). He could be the same as William Perrie living in St. Botolph, Aldgate, in 1638 in the same parish as the master of William Piers, John Gillett (T C Dale. "Inhabitants of London in 1638: St. Botolph, Aldgate," in The Inhabitants of London in 1638, [London: Society of Genealogists, 1931], 210-224. The relationship of William Peirce to Thomas Peirce and John Rolfe is known in that Thomas Peirce and William Peirce were both from the Shropshire Montgomeryshire area and John Rolfe and William Peirce both traveled to Virginia on the Seaventure and were stranded together on Bermuda. However, it is not known if William Peirce and William Spencer knew each other before coming to Virginia or just became acquainted after arriving.

Captain William Peerce. The value of the estate was 12 pounds 17 shillings.<sup>10</sup> Although the inventory was entered into the record in 1625, it must have been taken before April 1623 since Rev. Buck died between December 1622 and April 1623.<sup>11</sup>

A clue to the English origins of Thomas Peirce is recorded in the records of the Virginia Company. At “An Extraordinary Court Holden for Virginia on Monday the 7 of October 1622” there is this record:

Edward Peirs Cittizen and Marchantaylor of London, peticoninge for leaue to administer vpon the estate of one Thomas Peirs his Brother, late inhabitinge neare Mulbery Ilands in Virginia (who was there slaine with his wife and child in the late Massacre) It was ordered that forsomuch as it hath bin testified as well by Certificate from Sr Wm Owen knight and Thomas Jones esquire Bayliffe of the Towne of Shrewsbury as also vpon oath taken of the Peticonr and one Robert Corbett<sup>12</sup> by the Deputy and some other of his Majst Counsell for Virginia that the said Edward Peirs is the onely Brother of the said Thomas deceased, and that he hath but one only Sister namely Ann Peirs lyvinge That the Gouvernor and Councell of Virginia should be entreated to shewe the Peticoner or his Assignes what lawfull fauor and assistance they may in the premisses that the Proprietors may receaue the benifitt of the proceed of those goods that shalbe found out with all expidicon.<sup>13</sup>

The Merchant Taylors’ apprentice record for Edward Peers was located and it records that he was the son of William Peers II of Shrewsbury in county Shropshire mercer deceased and was apprenticed to Nicholas Treswell in February of 1605<sup>14</sup> He married at St. Olave, Hart Street, on 5 Sept. 1631, Margaret Bonifant,<sup>15</sup> the widow of James Bonifant.<sup>16</sup> His will recorded in London.

The identification of Edward Peirce, brother of Thomas Peirce of Virginia as Edward Peirce of St. Olave is almost certain given that he named only one sibling in his will, his sister Ann. He did not identify as a Merchant Taylor in the will, but the mention of his friend Oliver Morris helps confirm this. Oliver Morris and Edward Peirce were both admitted as freeman in the Merchant Taylor's Company on 11 March 1615.<sup>18</sup> The apprentice binding for Oliver Morris in 1607 to Edwin Baker shows that he was the son of David Morris of Welshpool in Montgomery, cleric, deceased.<sup>19</sup> Two records have been found of David Morris in Welshpool. The first is particularly relevant since it shows that he knew Humffrey Piers Reynald. Since there was more than one Humfrey Piers living in Welshpool at this time this record is a clue to help to identify the correct one and it also clearly connects him with the will of Edward Piers of London

There is a pedigree for this family in the The Visitation of Shropshire taken in the year 1623.<sup>23</sup> The pedigree for Pyrs of Shrewsbury has a William Pyrs married to Dorothy daughter of Thomas Wilson Dean of Westminster<sup>24</sup> with 3 children Thomas, Edward and Anne. The pedigree shows that William of Shrewsbury was the son of William of Shrewsbury and Margaret the daughter of Edward Hoorde. The parish register of St. Julians, Shrewsbury, gives the christening of Thomas' father William the son of William Perse on 16 March 1560, his brother Edward son of William Pearse on 23 Robert Treswell, The Visitation of Shropshire taken in the year 1623, (London, 1889), 2:416. The coat of arms for this pedigree is 'Quarterly or and azure, four pheons countercharged'. The pedigree fails to list the eldest son of Edward Pyrs, Lloyd, baptized 24 August 1595 at Myddle, Shropshire and incorrectly identifies his wife as Elizabeth, daughter to Thomas Mort. The will of William Peers of Shrewsbury mentions 'Lloyd Peers eldest sonne of Edward Peers my sonne'.

24 This should probably read Dean of Worcester and not Westminster. The PCC will of "Thomas Wilson or Willson, Clerk, Dean of the Cathedral Church of Worcester" (TNA PROB 11/69/573) was made in 1585, and named a daughter Dorothy.

12 October 1588, and his sister Ann daughter of William Pearse, mercer, 16 May 1590.<sup>25</sup> The christening of Thomas was not located. Thomas' grandfather William Peers was elected Bailiff of Shrewsbury in 1565 and 1571.<sup>26</sup> William Pearce of Shrewsbury, mercer, son of Thomas Pearce of Cressage<sup>27</sup>, yeoman, was admitted a burgess of Shrewsbury in 1551.<sup>28</sup> William Pearce the younger was admitted to the Shrewsbury mercers on 3 Oct 1583.<sup>29</sup>

The will of William Peers, Mercer of Shrewsbury and grandfather of Thomas of Virginia, was dated 1 June 1598:

I doe give and bequeath unto George Peers my sonne all that my messuage or tenement with all profitt commodities and appurtenances to the same belonging situate lying and being in the parishe of Guilsfield in the countie of Montgomerie and now or late in the the tenure and occupacon of Edward Mathewes ... and for default of such issue then to remayne to Lloyd Peers eldest sonne of Edward Peers my sonne ... I give and bequeath unto my said sonne Edward Peers all my landes tenemente and hereditamente within the severall townes of Stemerton als Stenwerdine in the fields in the parish of Bathchurch and in Morton in the parishe of Middle ... after his decease to remayne to the heires males of my said sonne Edward Peers by him lawfully to be begotten and for default of such if no then my will is the all and singular my said landes and tenement in Stanton als Standie, middle and in the towne and libertie of Shrewsbury aforesaid to remayne to Thomas Peers the younger sonne of William Peers the younger deceased sone of me the said William Peers the elder George Peers and Edmonde Peers my said sonnes equally to be divided amongst them the said Thomas Peers the younger George and Edmond Peers ... my said sonne Edward or his assignes doe yield and pay the some of fyve poundes of lawfull englishe money to the said Thomas Peers the younger sonne of my said sonne William Peers deceased towards his maynetenance and bringing up ... Iteme I doe make consitutue and ordane Edward Peers and George Peers two of my sonnes executore of this my last will and testament ...<sup>30</sup>

The eldest son of William Peers, Edward, baptized at St Julians 6 December 1559, married Elizabeth daughter of Griffith Lloyd, armiger, at Guilsfield on 16 July 1581.<sup>31</sup> He was buried at Guilsfield 17 May 1616.<sup>32</sup> She was buried at Guilsfield 9 July 1622 as Elizabeth Peers widow of Maesmawr.<sup>33</sup> Guilsfield parish is adjacent to the parish of Welshpool which is about 20 miles west of Shrewsbury, just across the border of Wales.

The will of 'John Peers of Cressage in the parishe of Counde within the county of Salope, yoman', dated 21 January 1578, named 'William Peers of Salop my brother, gent,' one of the executors. Also mentioned were his son and heir William Peers, and other children Mary, Frances, John, Edmond, Roger, Elene, and Margaret.<sup>34</sup> William Pearce of Cressage made his will in 1615.<sup>35</sup> In 1533 John Peerys of Cressage leased a tenement for 66 years from the prior of St. Milburga, Wenlock.<sup>36</sup> Between 1533 and 1538 John Perse and his father Thomas were named in a chancery case involving goods left on a property they leased in Harnarge, a village near to Cressage.<sup>37</sup> A search of the Peirce family in Shrewsbury and Cressage did not find anyone named William Peirce who could possibly have been William Peirce of Virginia concluding that William Peirce and Thomas Peirce of Virginia were probably more distantly related than second cousins.

The attempt to identify Humfrey Peirce of Welshpool found 3 people with a variant of the name living in Welshpool in the second half of the sixteenth century. The first was the son of Piers Reynold and Thomasyn and was variously called Humffrey Piers, Humffrey ap Piers, Humffrey ap Piers Reynald and Humffrey Piers Reynald. His grandmother on his mothers side was named Margaret verch David and he inherited property in Welshpool from her as an infant as both his parents and maternal grandparents died before 1541 and he was named in several chancery suits concerning this property.<sup>38</sup> Another was Humffrey Piers ap Ieuan ap Eignion who was a burgess of Pool in 1576.<sup>39</sup> He may have been the same Humfry Peers attached to the list of burgesses of the bylaws of Welshpool of 1570,<sup>40</sup> or that could have been Humffrey Piers Reynald. The third was the son of Roger Piers and Gwen verch Rynald and he was named in his mother's will dated 1570.<sup>41</sup>

Since the premise that Captain William Pierce and Thomas Pierce were related depends to an extent on the fact that they have the same last name it might seem more likely that he was the son of Humfrey the son of Roger since he would have inherited the name Piers as an English surname style as opposed to a Welsh patronymic. However, there are 2 records that indicate the father of William was more likely to be Humfrey ap Piers Reynald. The first one already cited shows that Humfrey Piers Reynald was acquainted with the father of Oliver Morris who was mentioned in the will of Edward Piers of London. The second is a record that shows Humfrey ap Piers Reynald was likely a weaver.

Indictment against Edward ap Lewis of Garth, Labr., that during the month of February 1574 and at diverse other times before and after, at Garth, he undertook the art and mystery of a "kyrveld" weavers craft, contrary to the statute 5 Elizabeth concerning artificiers, labourers, servants of husbandry and apprentices.

Endorsed: Prosecutor: Humffrey ap Piers Reynald. Witnesses: Hugh Lloyd, Robert ap Llewellyn, James ap John Reynald. Jury for the Boroughs. True Bill.<sup>42</sup>

Humffrey ap Piers Reynald shown here as a prosecutor was probably not an official of the court, but was instead a private citizen who gave evidence against the accused, which was common at this time.<sup>43</sup> This was the only time he appeared as a prosecutor in the gaol file records. It is likely that Humfrey was a member of the weavers guild or perhaps even an official of that guild bringing the case against the accused. Since the father of William the apprentice was known to be a weaver, then this record supports the conclusion that his father was Humffrey ap Piers Reynald.

It is possible that the Piers family of Shrewsbury was descended from an earlier Piers family that lived in Welshpool and that Humffrey ap Piers Reynald was also related perhaps by a maternal Piers ancestry of Piers Reynald. In 1356 Roger Peres, possibly an English settler, was a witness for a grant by the abbot of Lilleshall Abbey for a plot in Welshpool<sup>44</sup> and in 1375 Roger Piers appeared as bailiff of Welshpool on a grant of land in Welshpool.<sup>45</sup> In 1396 and in 1417 William Piers was witness to 2 grants from the abbot of Lilleshall Abbey for plots in Welshpool.<sup>46</sup> Two grants of a tenement in Shrewsbury, the first, a grant to William Piers dated 1390, and the second, a grant by William Piers, dated 1417, show the connection of Roger Piers of Welshpool and his son William Piers to Shrewsbury.

Let it be known to those present & future that we, John son of Roger Piers of Pool (Welshpool), Hugh Baggesovers & Sybil his wife, John Clerkyn & Helen his wife, & Eleanor formerly wife of Richard Reymond of Pool have given, granted & by this our present deed have confirmed to William son of Roger Piers our whole tenement with its appurtenances in Shrewsbury ...<sup>47</sup>

The two deeds to and by William Piers for property in Shrewsbury have seals attached. The second deed has the name of William Piers on the seal tag and the impression on the seal is a shield with a lion rampant. The 1390 deed to William Piers is from his brother and 3 probably related couples or widow (sisters?) and two of the seals have a similar impression of a lion rampant on a shield as the 1418 deed, which shows this early Piers family of Welshpool was using a coat of arms.

The will of “Gwen verch Rynald late wife to Roger Piers of the pishe of pole” was made in 1570. In it she named a son Humfrey. The executors of the will were “John Piers clerck vicar of pole Hughe ap Rinald and Thomas ap Rinald my two bretherne.”<sup>48</sup> There is an entry for her family at “The Parish of Castell: Trevhelig” in a visitation of Wales that shows she was married to Roger ap John Pierce.<sup>49</sup> Evidently the father of Roger Piers was the parish vicar. He was appointed vicar of Welshpool in 1531.<sup>50</sup> It is not unreasonable to assume that given this family used the name Roger Piers and lived in Welshpool, that they were related to the family of that name that lived there 200 years earlier. Humfrey, son of Roger, was probably the same as Humffrey Piers of Gungrog, yeo., who was in court records in 1582 for taking oaks and saplings from another persons land.<sup>51</sup> Gungrog is an area a mile or two north of the main township of Welshpool.

The accepted genealogy of William Peirce has that he was the father of Joan who married John Rolfe around 1619. However, if he was apprenticed in 1599 for eight years, for him to be the father of Joan he would have had to quit the apprenticeship. Evidently this was not uncommon<sup>52</sup>, but if he did finish, he would not have married before 1607, so could not be the father of Joan. Two facts support the latter idea. First, William and wife Joan and daughter Joan sailed for Virginia on the same supply convoy, but in different ships. This would have made more sense if they were not married when they sailed but married in Virginia. Second, as far as I can tell the evidence that he was the father of Joan is the will of John Rolfe that called him his father-in-law.<sup>53</sup> In fact, especially according to the usage of the seventeenth century, this designation appears to be ambiguous as to whether Joan was his daughter or daughter of his wife by a previous marriage.

An early name for Warwick County where Mulberry Island is located and Captain William Peirce lived was Denbigh County. Many counties in Virginia were named for counties in England, so Denbigh County must have been named for Denbighshire in Wales, a county adjacent to Montgomeryshire where Welshpool was located. However, Denby was listed as a separate location than Mulberry Island as early as 1629/30,<sup>54</sup> so it is perhaps just a coincidence, or maybe this was an area where other Welsh people lived.

She left her dwelling to Robart the sone of Richiart Llect'[er]. Llecter does not appear to be a surname and could instead an occupational description. Possibly he was a lector which is a minor order in the church who read from the bible. The Montgomeryshire court has a record from 1562 that mentions Robert ap Richard alias Robert Benllyn of Poole, cleric.<sup>56</sup> It seems that this is may have been the person given the dwelling.

A chancery case of 1549<sup>57</sup> of the executor of the will of Maly or Mary ap [sic] David versus Reynold and Roger ap David ap Griffith is certainly referring to the sister mentioned in the will of Margaret. Mally is an unusual name and the fact that the 2 executors of the estate of Margaret are parties in the case shows that it must be the same Mally. Whether David a[p] Mathewe Gough is the same as David Vichyaun ap Mathey Goch, one of the executors of Margaret's estate, is not certain as vichyaun means junior in Welsh so it was perhaps his son or was dropped in the document.

The apparent odd or erroneous reference of Mary ap David is noted in the National Archives catalog entry with (sic) as Mary would not be a son of David. However, there is note in the index to Hereford probates for an entry dated 1530 where the executor was Johan ap John verch Rees. The note says that " 'Ap' was at this period often used in the names of women, but 'verch' was not used in men's names". From this note we see that Mary ap David's name may not have been a clerical error and that it may not be synonymous with verch David and its meaning is unclear. Looking over the index of this volume did in fact show a considerable number of women's names with 'Ap'.<sup>58</sup>

Reynald ap David ap Griffith is certainly the same whose genealogy is recorded in a list of pedigrees published in 1716 and held by the British Library. The pedigree shows that his family was from Burgedin, a township in Guilsfield. Reynalde ap David ap Gruffid was descended from an Ithel Goch who "had a gavel of lands in Bargeding which was of bond tenure and was made free by doubling ye rent he was the son of David ap Meredith ap Blithen ap Kynsyn".<sup>60</sup> Meredith ap Blethyn was a prince of Powis.<sup>61</sup>

Bartrum's Welsh Genealogies has a page for the family of Reynald ap David ap Griffith of Burgedin and also a page for the genealogy of the mother of Reynold and Roger who was named Marsli versh David Goch and who was in the 'tribe of Gwenwys'.<sup>62</sup> Marsli was a diminutive of Margaret.

The chancery case concerning the property owned in Burgedin by Maly did not indicate that it was a widow's life portion or that it was jointly held with a living or deceased husband or that she was married or a widow. She may have been unmarried. Also, searching in the genealogies did not show any ways she might have been related to Reynold ap David by marriage and it seems more likely she was related by common ancestry. The fact that the case called Roger and Reynold Mally's kinsman and not brothers probably means that they were not her brothers. She could not have been the sister of their father David ap Griffith since her Margaret and Mally's father was named David.

A tax list for the hundred of Pool for 1546 has a list for Burgeding and the names Rynald ap David ap Griffin, Roger ap David ap Griffin, David ap Griffin, and Hugh ap David ap Jevan ap Dio.<sup>63</sup> One possibility is that Hugh ap David ap Jevan ap Dio was the brother of Margaret and Mally since in a chancery case 1559-1570 (see below) 60 acres that Humfrey ap Pyers Reynold claimed to own was owned by Jevan ap Dio of Trewern, a township near to Burgedin.

Probably Margaret and Mally were related to Marsli verch David Goch and that is how Reynold and Roger were kinsmen of Mally. The fact that Margaret and Marsli shared the same name supports this. Exactly how they might have been related is not clear. If Margaret vch David and Mally were descendants of the "tribe" of Gwenys then Humfrey Piers would have been a distant cousin of Elizabeth Lloyd who married Thomas Pierce's uncle Edward Pierce who was also a descendant of the "tribe" of Gwenys.<sup>64</sup> The Gwenys tribe can trace their ancestry back to Brochwel Ysgithrog who was king of Powys in the sixth century.

There is also a connection of the Piers family of Shrewsbury to Burgedin. The 1598 will of William Peers of Shrewsbury had the bequest of land in Guilsfield that was 'in the tenure and occupacon of Edward Mathewes'. The subsidies of 41 Elizabeth and 42 Elizabeth for Montgomeryshire show an Edward Mathew taxed in Travnaney & Keel.<sup>65</sup> This is evidently Trefnanney located about 8 miles north of Welshpool but just about a mile from Burgedin. Parish records for Guilsfield show that Edward Mathewes was married 1577 to Elizabeth vz Richard Ffyrniffall. The will of Hugh Furnifall who lived in Burgedin shows that his father was Richard Furnifall so that Edward Mathewes was related by marriage to a Burgedin family.

64 The most recent common ancestor of Elizabeth (Lloyd) Piers and Marsli vch David Goch was Madog ap Gwenwys. The Bartrum pedigrees give a rough estimate to the date of birth of the people in the pedigrees and it assigns an approximate date of birth of Madog ap Gwenwys of 1300.

I have received your letter desiring a commission for Rob. Dudley and Ric. involved several men who lived in Shrewsbury suing to have burgess privileges in Welshpool.<sup>70</sup> Thomasin and her husband were dead by 1541.

Child of Pyers and Thomasin:

- i. [3]Humfrey Peirce, also known as Humfrey ap Piers, Humfrey ap Piers Reynold, and Humfrey Piers Reynold.

3. Humfrey<sup>A</sup> Peirce (Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>), was born before 1540, but was a minor at that time. On 20 Feb 1572 John Piers, Humffrey Piers and Anne his wife were witnesses against John Molyner for theft of a sheet and pillow bier at Pool.<sup>71</sup> The name in the record is Humffrey Piers so it is not certain it is Humfrey Piers Reynald, however the appearance of John Piers as one of the witnesses seems to support this conclusion. Probably if this was a reference to the parish priest he would have been identified as a cleric or with the title of Sir. He was a weaver of Welshpool, and in 1574 he was prosecutor in a case involving weaving so he was probably in the weavers guild or an official of that guild. The last record of Humfrey Piers Reynald was on 7 April 1597 when he was one of the sureties for William ap Thomas of Broniarth.<sup>72</sup> He was deceased between this date and 1599 when William Piers' apprentice record was entered. Since he was born before 1540 then if his son William was born circa 1580 he would have probably been in his forties William was born.

There were two later chancery cases which concerned property owned by Humfrey Piers Reynald. The first is dated 1562 and is notable since the complainant used the name Humfray Peares and not his full Welsh name showing an instance where Humfrey Piers Reynald was known by an English style name. It concerned 3 parcels of land of 40, 20 and 13 acres in Welshpool. The date of the second is not known but while Nicholas Bacon was chancellor (1558-1571). In it John Pirse was the complainant concerning a tenement or burgage in Welshpool and 60 acres in the township of Trewern which was granted to him by Humfrey Piers Reynald. Trewern is a township 3 miles northeast of Welshpool in the parish of Buttington and about 2 miles from Burgedin.

This chancery case gives no indication of the relation of John to Humphrey. John Piers was probably the same who was mentioned in the will of Richard ap Howell of Ednop<sup>75</sup>, dated 1557. It states that “I doe give to Howell, my sonne, and to his heires after the decease of his mother, the tenement and lands which Thomas Cocke and John Piers occupieth.”<sup>76</sup> However, by 1576 he was evidently living in Montgomeryshire when he was juror for a case of a man who drowned in the River Severn at Trewern.<sup>77</sup> Since John Piers seems to be about the same age as Humphrey Piers he was possibly a half-brother or cousin. Since he may have had a cousin last named Piers, then his father Piers Reynald was possibly related to the Piers family in some way.

William Peirce sonne of Humfrey Peirce late of Pole in the [missing] of Monngmmery weaver deceased bound to John Gillet [missing] cutler of London from the feast of the Nativitie of St. John Bap [missing] last for eight yeres dated xxi of October 1599<sup>78</sup>

This identification of Captain William Peirce as the son of Humfrey of Welshpool is supported with several important facts. The will of Thomas of Virginia's grandfather, William of Shrewsbury, mentioned property in Guilsfield a parish adjacent to the parish of Welshpool where the town of Welshpool is located and and Thomas' uncle Edward Peers married Elizabeth Lloyd of Guilsfield. Thomas' brother Edward of Allhallows Barking in London in his will mentioned Oliver Morris, son of David Morris of Welshpool. David Morris, clerk, was acquainted with the father of William Piers in Welshpool and Oliver was apprenticed and living in London at the same time as William Peirce. His grandfather Piers Reynold was shown in the court record of 1535 to have had connections to Shrewsbury merchants. William was about the right age to be Captain Peirce, and he would have probably been living in London where many of the settlers for the 1609 voyage were recruited.<sup>79</sup> No records were located that indicate he may have continued to live in London.

After arriving in Virginia in 1609 and 1610 William Peirce and his wife Jone and her daughter Joane continued to live in Virginia. In the muster of inhabitants of Virginia taken in 1624/5 at James City were listed Capt. William Peirce who came in the Sea-venture, Mrs Jone Peirce his wife who came in the Blessinge, and her daughter who was married to Captain Roger Smith as Mrs. Joane Smith who came in the Blessinge. At Mulberry Island was the muster of the servants of Captain William Peirce.<sup>80</sup> The foundations of his house in Jamestown are still there. Captain Peirce was an important person in early Virginia and served on the governor's council from 1632 to 1643. In May 1623, he was appointed captain of the Governor's guards and commander of James City.<sup>81</sup> A grant for 2100 acres to Captain William Peirce, dated 16 December 1643, in or near Mulberry Island includes a regrant of 650 acres granted to him 31 December 1619 and was "near the now dwelling howse of sd Peirce".<sup>82</sup>

79 In early 1609 a broadside was distributed over England calling for all work-people who wished to go to Virginia "to come to the house of Sir Thomas Smythe in Filpot Lane," and "they will be entered as adventurers in the present voyage to Virginia." Seven ships sailed from London on May 25 and with 2 small vessels added to the fleet at Plymouth they sailed for Virginia on June 12 1609. 81 Wolfe, "William Peirce". In the census of 1624/5 Captain Peirce reported 30 swords, second most in the colony, and 24 snaphance pieces. This is probably explained by the fact he was Captain of the guard, but if he was the same as William Peirce, cutler of London, then it would make sense that he was captain and armourer. Brown, Republic, p. 626.

82 Nugent, Cavaliers and Pioneers, 1:149.

An English record indicates that Captain Peirce had more than one child. In 1635 Captain Peirce was among the members of the Council that tried to remove the governor. For this he was sent to England to appear before the Star chamber. On 29 September 1637 he made a petition to the court.

Upon a petition presented to the boord in the name of William Peirce, shewing that about 18 months since, he came into England from Virginia ... having spent the meanes brought over with him, soe as hee is unable to subsist here any longer, besought their Lordships to give him License to goe back into Virginia, for some short time, to make his Provision, and to settle his Estate there, which is in danger to bee lost, to his utter ruine, having noe other meanes to maintaine himselfe, his wife and Children...<sup>83</sup>

By January 1638/9 he was back in Virginia when he is mentioned in a gift of Thomas Peirce.

He was dead by 22 June 1647 when there is an estate record of Captain William Peirce deceased in Warwick County.<sup>85</sup>

Children of William and Joanne:

- i. Joane (possibly), born England ca. 1600-1605. More likely Joane was a daughter of a previous marriage of Joanne and step-daughter of William. She married around 1619 John Rolfe, and after his death Captain Roger Smith. Her daughter by John Rolfe, Elizabeth, was born 1620.
- ii. [5]Thomas (possibly)<sup>86</sup>

5. Thomas<sup>2</sup> Peirce (William<sup>1</sup>, Humffrey Piers<sup>A</sup>, Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>) was was not recorded in the muster of 1624/5. According to Virginia Immigrants and Adventurers there were only 44 people known to be missing from this muster, which accounts for 3.5 percent of the total.<sup>88</sup> He was also not recorded in Lists Of The Living And Dead In Virginia, 16 Feb.,1623.<sup>89</sup> Probably he would not have been missed from both lists so he was probably not in the colony at that time. Possibly, he had been sent to England for schooling. The name of his wife is not recorded.

Thomas Peirce was dead by 21 Oct. 1665 when Grace Harwood petitioned concerning an inheritance from the estate of Captain Thomas Pierce.

The petition preferred by Mr. Thomas Iken as he intermarried with Grace Harwood against Thomas Peirce as one of the executors of Captaine Thomas Peirce deceased for a legacy given by Capt. Peirce to Grace of tenne pounds sterling is, in regard Thomas Peirce is not yet of age and hath not yet his estate in his hands nor acted as executor, referred until Thomas Peirce comes to age at which tyme he that is then his guardian is ordered to keepe soe much of his hands in his hands as shall bee satisfactory for the debt or legacy.<sup>90</sup>

- iii. Jeremiah. Jeremiah Pierce appeared on an undated document of Warwick county records in a folder dated 1647-1660.<sup>91</sup> He does not appear to be the same who was in a court record dated 1673.<sup>92</sup>

6. Anne<sup>2</sup> Peirce (William<sup>1</sup>, Humffrey Piers<sup>A</sup>, Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>), who was possibly named for her putative grandmother, Anne the wife of Humffrey Piers, married after 1625 Thomas Harwood of Warwick County who died in 1652. She married second Henry Blagrove. In 1653 Anne Harwood, widow of Captain Thomas Harwood made a deed of gift to her 3 children who were later named in an expense account as “Humphey, Grace, and Margaret Harwood, orphans of Captain Thomas Harwood.”<sup>93</sup> Since her children were minors in 1653 she could have been born after the census of 1624/5 or she could have been absent at the time. Her son Humphrey could have been named for his great-grandfather Humfrey Peirce. If so this would give credence to the theory that Captain Peirce was from Welshpool and also that Ann Harwood was his daughter.

The Warwick County court order book for 1713-1714 gives a record of people named Pierce living in the County before the gap of 35 years when the record of court minutes start in 1748. Jeremiah Pierce junior and senior both appear in court cases. John Pierce, Jr. and William Pierce together gave bond for the widow of George King. A Joseph Pierce junior and senior both appeared at separate times on a grand jury.<sup>95</sup> A York County order 11 June 1724 an estate appraisal was returned by Mathew Pierce and Joseph Pierce.<sup>96</sup> Since Mathew Pierce was a member of a York County family, then probably so were Joseph and Joseph Pierce Jr. William was probably the son of Thomas Pierce and also one Jeremiah. Although there are no records that explicitly name children of William analysis of land records shows that William had children and most likely one was Jeremiah.

Children of William:

- i. [10] Jeremiah
- ii. Thomas. He was probably the Thomas Peirce living in the household of Henry Norton in Surry County from 1685 to 1689.

8. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Peirce (Thomas<sup>2</sup>, William<sup>1</sup>, Humffrey Piers<sup>A</sup>, Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>) was born ca. 1645-1650 since he was not of age in 1665, but was granted 155 acres in Warwick County in Mulberry Island Parish near George Harwood's house on 2 March 1673/4.<sup>97</sup> Thomas Peirce left a will in Warwick County dated 7 October 1696. He left to his 'wife Elizabeth my own plantacion with fifty acres of land during her life and afterward to my son William Pierce... if my wife marryes the plantacion to be delivered forthwith". He also left land to daughter Elizabeth and son Jeremiah.<sup>98</sup> The quit rent for 1704 for Warwick County has a single entry for the Peirce family, Widow Peirce – 155 acres.<sup>99</sup>

Thomas Iken deposed in York County court on 27th August, 1661 that he was 28 years old.<sup>103</sup> He was certainly the same as Thomas Iken who was baptized 5th Dec. 1632 at Stifford, Essex. He attended Cambridge as did his father James Iken who was rector of Stifford.<sup>104</sup> His grandfather was Thomas Iken citizen and skinner, of London who in his will says that he was born in Shropshire in the parish of Hodnett.<sup>105</sup> Hodnet is about 12 miles from Shrewsbury and 30 miles from Welshpool.

10. Jeremiah<sup>4</sup> Peirce (William<sup>3</sup>, Thomas<sup>2</sup>, William<sup>1</sup>, Humffrey<sup>A</sup>, Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>) The General Court record dated 27th Octobr 1673 probably refers to the son of William Pierce:

The Difference Betweene Jeremiah Peirce and Hen: Norton about Land Now in the faid Nortons, Poffeffion. It is ordered that the faid Peirce be Poffeffed of the Said Land According to the Will of his father and the Sherriffe of Warwick County put the Said Peirce into Poffeffion, & it is further orderd yt the faid Norton Live vppon ye Said Land this yeare, & ye Said Norton is to Comitte noe Trefpafte nor waft vppon ye faid Land, and that Norton pay Cofts<sup>106</sup>

The 1669 land grant to Thomas Iken, the 1668 grant to William Pierce and the land owned by George Harwood appear to cover all of the land granted to Capt. William Pierce so this order most likely refers to the 1668 grant to William Pierce. The 1669 grant to Thomas Iken refers to the land where the William Pierce grant was located as the land of John Basse not the land of William Pierce.

Court records 4 January 1677/8 and 1675 in York County show a connection of Henry Norton and the Basse family and that John Bass was married and may have had children:

On the motion & petition of John Basse a reference is granted him till the next court att the suit of Henry Norton being unprovided at this court to make his defense<sup>107</sup>

John Bass and his wife are ordered to next court to give inventory of estate of Robert Jones, dec'd<sup>108</sup>

Surry Count tax records show Henry Norton living in that county by 1685. The taxes are listed variably in Lawnes Creek and Blackwater precincts.

1685 Hen: Morton, Tho: Pearce - 2
1686 Hen. Norton, Tho. Pearce - 2
1687 Henry Norton & Tho: Pearre -2
1688 Hen: Norton, Tho: Peirce - 2
1689 Hen: Norton, Tho: Pearce, Cha: Basse - 3
1690 Henry Norton, Cha: Bass - 2
1691 Henry Norton, Cha: Basse - 2<sup>109</sup>

These records could be explained by assuming that Charles was the son of John Basse. It would seem that possibly John Basse died when Charles was a minor and that Henry Norton was appointed his guardian, or Charles was apprenticed to Norton. In either case it would make sense if Charles was still living in his household in 1691. This connection is consistent with the fact that the 1668 grant to William Pierce that was shown in the grant to Iken as the property of John Basse was the property in question in 1673 that was occupied by Henry Norton. Thomas Peirce was probably the brother of Jeremiah Peirce.

Jeremiah Pierce was not necessarily of age in 1673 since minor heirs could bring cases. A query on ChatGPT gives this response - "If Peirce had been underage, he likely brought the case through a "next friend" or guardian, though this record doesn't name one—common in brief or less formal court orders." In 1685 Jeremiah Pierce returned an account of horses of the estate of John Wills.<sup>110</sup> Since he would have been at least 21 years old at the time, then he would have been born by 1664.

Child (or grandchild) of Jeremiah:

i. [12] Spencer

11. William<sup>4</sup> Peirce (Thomas<sup>3</sup>, Thomas<sup>2</sup>, William<sup>1</sup>, Humffrey<sup>A</sup>, Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>) was mentioned in his father's will and that he was to receive the plantation of Thomas Peirce after Thomas' widow died or remarried. The 1713 rent roll for Warwick County has William Pierce listed for 155 acres which is the same acreage listed to widow Peirce in 1704 so she had evidently died or remarried.<sup>111</sup>

12. Spencer<sup>5</sup> Pierce (Jeremiah<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, Thomas<sup>2</sup>, William<sup>1</sup>, Humffrey Piers<sup>A</sup>, Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>) first appears in Warwick County records in 1749 when he petitioned for counter security of the estate William Folks.<sup>112</sup> The records for Warwick County are mostly missing from the court order book for 1713-1714 to the court minutes that start in 1748, so there is no court record that connects Spencer Pierce to the earlier Peirce family. However, his family is the only Pierce or Peirce family that appears in the records starting in 1748. Spencer Pierce was dead by 7 August 1760 when his estate administration was recorded.

On the motion of Martha Pierce ordered that John George Wills, Benjamin Wills, Samuel Wills and John Pate Wills, or any three of them do examine & settle an account of the admon of the estate of Spencer Pierce deceased and report the same to the court.<sup>113</sup>

The name Spencer could refer to a connection to the family of William Spencer, the Jamestown era immigrant. The name was mentioned already twice in the grant of land to John Rolfe, Wm Peirce, Tho Peirce & William Spencer and the 1638 gift of a cow to the son of Thomas Peirce. In 1626 William Spencer deposed that in 1620 “he did oversee the labours of six or seaven men belonging to Capt William Peerce who planted in the main.”<sup>114</sup> He was a burgess for Mulberry Island in 1633,<sup>115</sup> and owned land adjoining William Peirce in what became Surry County.<sup>116</sup> William Spencer had a brother Nicholas Spencer who lived in Surry County and was living in Virginia as early as 1628. In 1658 a Robert Spencer who was probably related acted as attorney for a gift of land to Nicholas Spencer.<sup>117</sup> However, there is no known marriage of any of William Spencer’s descendants or descendants of the other Surry County Spencers to the Peirces.

Spencer Pierce owned 100 acres in Warwick County at some time as shown by a deed dated 1768 .<sup>118</sup> This court record was evidently taken by a union soldier as a souvenir during the Civil War and by the 1930s was held by the New York Public Library. A copy is presently at the Library of Virginia <sup>119</sup>.

or r?] Wills who conveyed the same to the sd. J.G. Wills and bounded by the most known ancient & reputed bounds thereof when ack. or proved – Nov. 10. 1768

At first reading this transfer is from Mr. Wills to J.G. Wills. However, a Wills family researcher pointed out that this should be Matthew Wills. Matthew Wills was the father of John George Wills and William Wills who were half-brothers.<sup>120</sup> William Wills died in 1774 in Warwick County. He had a son Thomas Wills. His widow married John Chisman of York County.<sup>121</sup>

The Wills family operated a ferry from Mulberry Island across the James River to Isle of Wight County. From 1742 Matthew Wills operated the ferry. When he died in 1761 his son John George Wills took over operation of the ferry. In 1776 John George Wills advertised to sell the ferry and the description states it was 372 acres. In 1792 the General Assembly discontinued the Mulberry Island ferry at Mulberry Island point.<sup>122</sup>

There are no further county records of this land but the State has land tax records starting in 1782. For the year of 1782 the 100 acres that had been sold to William Wills was recorded as taxed to Matthew Noblin as part of 175 acres since William Wills had died. The 1785 tax list Carter Crafford, the step-son of John George Wills was listed with the 372 acres from the J.G. Wells estate and 369 acres from Samuel Blow. The 1787 and 1788 lists show the change of the 175 acres taxed to Matthew Noblin to 58 1/3 acres taxed to John Chisman, the husband of William Wills widow, and 116 2/3 acres to Thomas Wills, the son of William Wills. The tax for 1798 list adds 116 2/3 acres to the tax of Carter Crafford of land from Thomas Wills by deed. After 1815 the entries give the bounds of property. Although William Wills widow had died her life estate continued to be taxed to her husband and the bounds of the 58 1/3 acres as 'Wly James River Nly Carter Crafford.'<sup>123</sup>

The 1669 land grant to Thomas Iken, 1668 grant to William Pierce, and the 1674 grant to Thomas Pierce were plotted on 1950 and 1944 USGS topo maps with QGIS software.<sup>124</sup> It is clear that the location of the Thomas Pierce grant is not consistent with the description of the land owned by Spencer Pierce and William Wills, but the William Pierce grant does appear to be in the same location as the Spencer Pierce land and it was also the same acreage of 100 acres. The William Pierce grant fit perfectly against the Thomas Iken grant, however the Iken grant seems to give the bounds of this land as the land of John Basse, so it is unclear as to when the 100 acres was transferred between John Basse and William Pierce around 1668.

The 100 acres does not appear in the Warwick tax records on 1704 and 1713 as owned by someone named Pierce. Spencer Pierce, Jr., had a relation, probably either brother or uncle who was named John Hansel Pierce.<sup>125</sup> The tax records do list 100 acres owned by a John Hansel for both the list 1704 and 1713, and the listing for 1704 which appears to list adjacent properties in order on the list the John Hansel 100 acres was listed with the Wells (Wills) properties. Evidently the 100 acres owned by John Hansel was transferred to Spencer Pierce who was probably his son-in-law or grandson, and this was probably the land the was previously owned by John Basse and William Pierce. John Hansel appeared two times in Warwick Court records. In 1714 John Scasbook, John Hansel, Jeremiah Pierce, William Pierce, and Walker Green were appointed to appraise the estate of Samuel Haley.<sup>126</sup>

Since all of these records - the estate record, the apprenticeship indenture of Rice Bolton Pierce and the deed - are made with member of the Wills family it must be concluded that they were either neighbors or related by marriage. The connection of the Wills family to the Pierces of Mulberry Island goes back to at least 1669 when the above mentioned Thomas Iken, whose wife Grace Harwood had died, married Elizabeth, the widow of Emanuel Wills, immigrant ancestor of the Wills family.<sup>127</sup>

Inquisitions on escheated lands has an entry dated 6 Jan. 1674/5 , writ dated 6 Feb. 1673/4, stating that ‘Mr. Thomas Iken late of Warwick County died seized of 400 acres in Mulberry Island Parish as by patent appears bearing date 14 May 1669. The 400 acres of land doth escheat. Granted to Jo: and Emanuel Wills’. <sup>128</sup> Further, Emanuel Wells was granted 159 acres in 1682, also escheated from Thomas Ikins and John Wells was granted 255 acres of escheat land of Thomas Ikins also in 1682<sup>129</sup>, and in 1690 Emanuel Wills was granted another 100 acres of escheate land of Thomas Iken as part of a patent of 155 acres.

However, although members of the Wills family owned land formerly owned by Captain William Pierce in the late 1600s, the connection of the Pierce and Wills family may actually originate in London where Edward Pierce and the Emanuel and Elizabeth Wills both were recorded in the St Olaves parish register. The baptisms of seven children, and the burial of one child of Emanuell and Elizabeth Wills were recorded in the register of St. Olave, Hart Street, from 1636 to 1648.<sup>130</sup>

13. Spencer<sup>6</sup> Pierce (Spencer<sup>5</sup>, Jeremiah<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, Thomas<sup>2</sup>, William<sup>1</sup>, Humffrey Piers<sup>A</sup>, Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>) was appointed constable for Stanley Hundred Precinct on 7 August 1760.<sup>132</sup> He was married to Elizabeth.<sup>133</sup> Stanley Hundred is a reference to a 1000 acre grant that originally bounded Capt. William Pierce's property to the east that was owned by Sir George Yeardley. He evidently died some time between 1764 when he is mentioned in the deed of John Hansel Pierce and September 1771 when William Wills as administrator of Spencer Pierce, decd., sued in York County and was granted [12? torn] pounds fourteen shillings.<sup>134</sup>

14. Rice Bolton<sup>6</sup> Pierce (Spencer<sup>5</sup>, Jeremiah<sup>4</sup>, William<sup>3</sup>, Thomas<sup>2</sup>, William<sup>1</sup>, Humffrey Piers<sup>A</sup>, Thomasin<sup>B</sup>, John ap Llewellyn<sup>C</sup>) was apprenticed in Warwick County in March 1761.

An Indenture of Apprenticeship from Rice Bolton Pierce to William Wills was with the Approbation of the court acknowledged by the parties and ordered to be certified.<sup>135</sup>

The name Rice Bolton probably indicates a relationship with Rice Bolton who was living in Mulberry Island parish in 1707.<sup>136</sup> Possibly his mother was a daughter of Rice Bolton.

On 24 Dec. 1767 Rice Bolton Pierce of Southampton County purchased a tract of land of 282 acres in Southampton County.<sup>137</sup> Rice Bolton Pierce submitted a claim for £20-3-6 for bacon supplied to the troops during the Revolutionary War.<sup>138</sup>

He died in 1792 in Southampton County.<sup>139</sup> A petition to the Virginia House of Delegates in 1793 by the heirs of Rice Bolton Pierce describes that he agreed to build a church in Newport Parish in Isle of Wight County in 1773, and that his estate was still owed money from work on the church.<sup>140</sup> The settlement of his estate shows that his oldest son was Spencer Pierce,<sup>141</sup> which is consistent with naming patterns of naming the oldest son for the grandfather. His widow, Elizabeth, left a will dated 28 April 1794 and recorded 9 Oct. 1794.<sup>142</sup>

Children of Rice Bolton and Elizabeth:

- i. Spencer, married Mary Calvert 19 Sept 1793 in Southampton County<sup>143</sup>.
- ii. Matthew died before his fathers estate was settled.
- iii. Martha married Michael Cobb.
- iv. Betsy
- v. Nathaniel, married Priscilla Riddick 3 Aug 1801 in Southampton County.<sup>144</sup> On 20 Dec. 1816 Nathaniel Pierce of Southampton County purchased 400 acres in Halifax County, NC, on the south side of Little Quankey Swamp. Rice B. Pierce was a witness.<sup>145</sup>
- vi. Peter
- vii. Rice Bolton married Frances Cook 22 June 1809 in Southampton County<sup>146</sup>. On 9 March 1816 Rice B. Pierce of Halifax County purchased 290 acres on the south side of Quankey Creek in Halifax county.<sup>147</sup> This property seems to be the same as where the old Pierce burial site on SR 903 in Halifax County is located and where he is buried. He served in the war of 1812. His application for bounty land, dated 16 Dec. 1850, states that he was 62 years old and that he was a captain of light infantry and enlisted at Southampton County.<sup>148</sup> He was dead by 8 August 1876 when administration of his estate was granted to his son Alexander B Pierce in Halifax County, N.C.<sup>149</sup>

A male line descendant of Rice B Pierce has taken the Y-DNA test at Family Tree DNA, and there were no matches to a Pierce surname at the 37 marker test or above. The 37 marker test yielded 4 matches, the 67 marker 2 matches, and the 111 marker test no matches. One of the 67 marker matches also took the more accurate snps test and it did show he shared a common ancestor who lived in the middle ages with the Toogood family of Somerset England with a 95% confidence between 129 and 1365 CE, best guess 861 CE. The more ancient lineage of this branch of the tree shows that it has roots in Italy, suggesting the ancestor may have been a Roman soldier/colonist.<sup>150</sup>
